

Election Overview

Lobbyist Network| December 9, 2024

Recycled Materials
Association
Sustainable. Resilient. Essential.

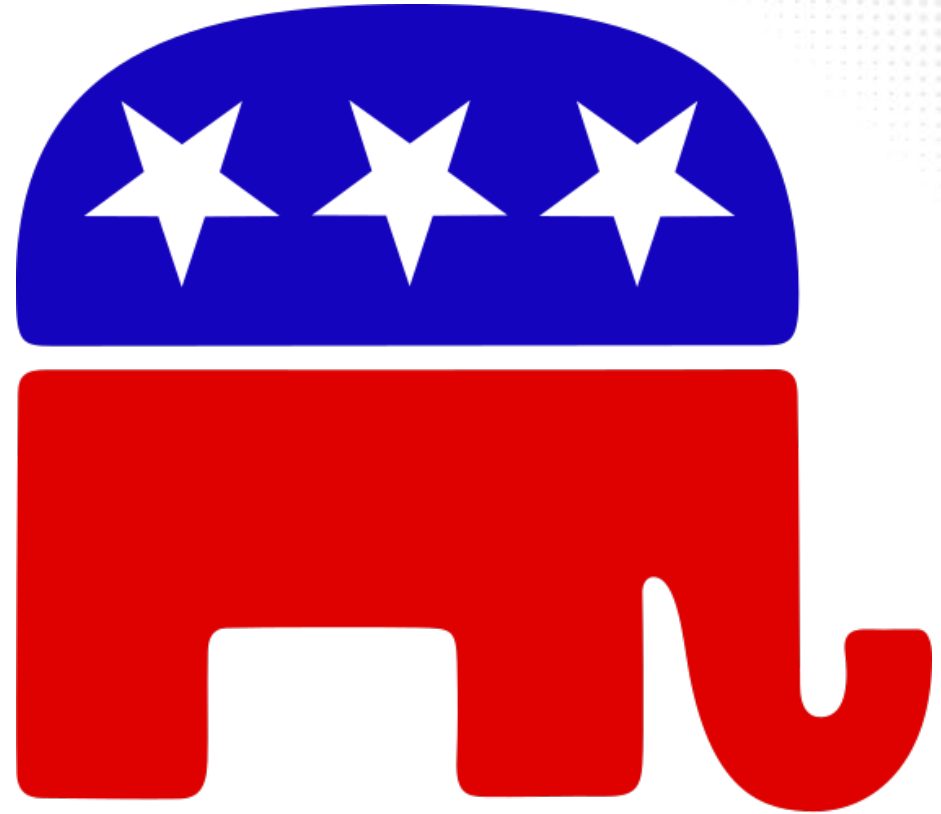

recycledmaterials.org

Federal Outlook

Unpacking November 5th: Republican Trifecta

- White House
 - President Donald Trump | Vice President-elect J.D. Vance
- 119th Congress
 - Senate - 53 R | 47 D
 - Majority Leader: John Thune (R-SD)
 - Minority Leader: Chuck Schumer (D-NY)
 - House – 220 R | 215 D
 - Speaker: Mike Johnson (R-LA-4)*
 - Majority Leader: Steve Scalise (R-LA-1)
 - Minority Leader: Hakeem Jeffries (D-NY-8)

Administration

- ❖ Most cabinet nominations (and others) announced
- ❖ TBD if Senate will go into recess for the confirmations – all options are on the table.
- ❖ Anticipated Trends?
 - Deregulation
 - Pro-Business
 - Onshore Manufacturing
 - Immigration
 - Workforce Retraining & Upskilling
- ❖ Wait & See – ReMA is preparing transition materials and will be ready to work with this administration.

Source: Saul Loeb / AFP - Getty Images

Recycling Policy in Transition: Congress

- Lame Duck
 - Continuing Resolution (CR) likely, set to expire Dec. 20th
- 119th Expectations – Q1
 - Senate Nominations (recess nominations?)
 - Reconciliation
 - Potential avenue for expired/expiring tax provisions
 - Appropriations
 - Filibuster to likely remain

State Outlook

Recycled Materials
Association

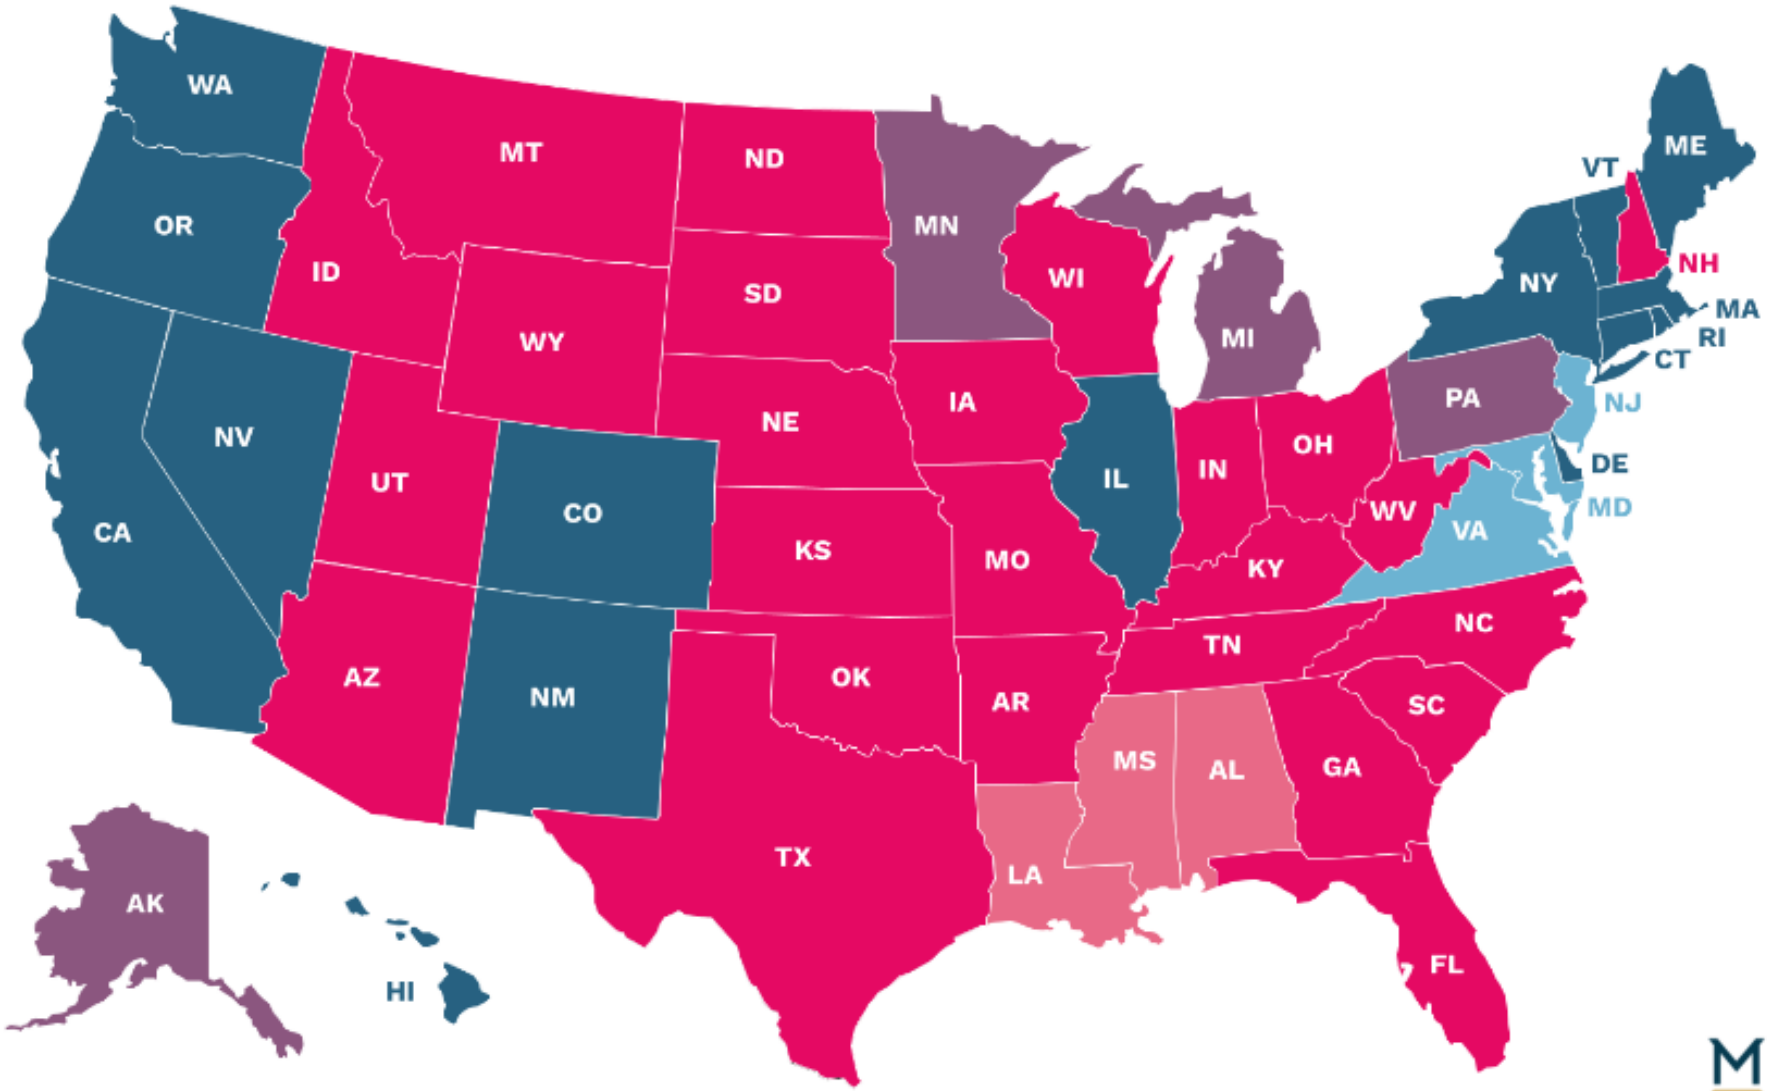

Legislatures | 2024 Post-Election Partisan Breakdown

Post-2024 Election

No 2024 Election

- Full Democratic Control (18)
- Full Republican Control (28)
- Split Control (4)

-
-
-

Source: MultiState. Data as of Nov. 19, 2024.

Major legislative chamber shifts in the 2024 elections are that Republicans flipped the Michigan House and tied the Minnesota Senate.

State Legislative Split Control

- Michigan
 - House flip from D to R control with 6 seat majority
 - Senate maintained D control with 2 seat majority
- Minnesota
 - House CURRENTLY flip from D to split control
 - District 54A: 14 vote margin D, with 20 votes being lost; R candidate challenging result
 - Senate maintained D control with 1 seat majority
- Pennsylvania: Continued split control
 - House D control with 1 seat majority
 - Senate R control with 6 seat majority
- Governors: Still 27 R - 23 D split, with NH maintaining R and NC maintaining D
 - NC R legislature lost supermajority, Vermont D legislature lost supermajority

Thank you!

Recycled Materials
Association

recycledmaterials.org